Beautiful brass

With warm metals now such a key look for bathrooms, brass has become an important decorative choice for fittings and accessories in the shower, too. 'Brass ages to a beautiful patina, but choose a lacquered finish if you prefer a non-tarnishing look. Or, if you want a vintage feel from day one, go for a hand-patinated finish,' says James Lentaigne, director of Drummonds. 'Copper can also be lacquered to maintain the colour and shine, but an unsealed finish allows a verdigris patina to develop gradually.' »
