REAL HOMES

24 Going the whole way

This large, open-plan kitchen provides the perfect party setting, but by day is a beautiful oasis of calm.

42 Wonder walnut

The glut of contemporary kitchens has been shunned in favour of wall-to-wall walnut to create a classic space with wow factor.

64 Minimalist warmth

A modern, minimalist design doesn't have to be clinical and cold as this sumptuous kitchen demonstrates.

70 Ahead of the curve

This bright and colourful kitchen features a striking horseshoe island that evolved in design as plans took shape.

88 Great expectations

A high-spec home merits an outstanding kitchen that fits the bill in every way.

Strip back Soho style

For a raw, stripped back, salvaged look in your wetroom or shower room, the new 'Soho' range from Impey blends high-spec functionality with industrial trend aesthetics. The aluminium-framed shower screen is powder coated in jet black and features rustic, exposed framework throughout to enhance the panel's authentic rugged appeal. From £710. ## Chinoiserie chic

New from the London Basin Company is the Layla, a highly decorative porcelain basin inspired by traditional chinoiserie. The hand-painted basin features an elegant, floral design in lemon yellows and soft pinks intertwined with exotic birds and butterflies against a lime green background. 145mm high, 420mm diameter, £900. Shown atop the Hugo vanity stand, £1,230. londonbasincompany.com

Bijou roll-top

The new Ashburn cast iron bath from Drummonds is a compact, freestanding roll-top based on 18th Century bateau designs. A great fit for smaller spaces, L1500xW730xH630mm, it offers all the comforts of a classic double-ended design with traditional ball and claw feet in four finish options – painted, polished (shown here), primed or raw metal. £3,390.
