EMILY AND HAL SALVESEN HAVE GIVEN THE DRAMATIC INTERIOR OF A HIGHLANDS FARMHOUSE AND STEADING A CAREFUL UPDATE WITH COSY COLOURS

Exterior The converted farm building and farmhouse is set in beautiful countryside.

Main bedroom The floor-to-ceiling windows look out over beautiful views. Emily has opted for an alpine chalet-inspired interior. Distressed painted wardrobe, Scottish Antique & Arts Centre. Bedding, The White Company.

Galleried landing A snug reading nook overlooks the double height living room. Find similar hide at Hide Rugs.

What makes this house a home...

'Family ties, friends and visitors. Bringing our children up in the same area that Hal was brought up in feels like it's meant to be'

Bedroom Mellow dusky pink creates a cosy backdrop. Bedside lamps, Oka.

Built in vanity units make the most of the tricky coved ceilings while a roll-top bath painted red makes a statement. Similar bath, Drummonds.

8 OPT FOR ORIENTAL

Choose a wow-factor backdrop for the bathroom. Take inspiration from this Japanese garden design, with its pearlescent antique finish. 'Bathrooms lend themselves to creating drama,' says James Lentaigne, creative director at Drummonds. 'Decorate with hand-painted designs to set the scene for key pieces such as a cast-iron bath. Be bold – it's one of the few places where you can get away with decorative elements that might be over the top in other rooms.'

Hand-painted Japanese Garden wallpaper on sterling silver gilded paper, W915mm, from £1,264 a panel, Japanese and Korean collection at de Gournay. Tweed bath, from £3,420, Drummonds. Use the Owable app to shop now
