

FEBRUARY 2019 £4.99

THE WORLD OF INTERIORS

antennae

What's in the air this month, edited by Nathalie Wilson

1

2

1 When crafting the 'Minne-waska' chandelier ($14,400) from silver, Jonah Meyer of Sawkille Co channels the skills of his father, a smith who also worked the soft and luminescent metal. Ring 001 845 217 7890, or visit sawkille.com.

2 If these plates seem familiar it's because the two patterns, 'Chawton Rosebud Moiré' (top) and 'Chawton Vine', have appeared on these pages before as wallpapers. (They were copied by Hamilton Weston using 19th-century scraps found at Jane Austen's House Museum in Hampshire.) Hand-painted to order by Sophie Andrews, a Janeite blogger, the plates cost £75 each, with a percentage going to the above institution. Visit Laughing with Lizzie on etsy.com.

3

3 Jamb has a knack for fashioning fabulous reproductions, be it a fireplace or, as here, furniture. The Regency-style 'Albury' sofa (top) is available in various finishes, including the aged painted one shown, while 'Stanley' is based on an early Howard & Sons model; £14,400 and £14,160 respectively (excluding fabric). Ring 020 7730 2122, or visit jamb.co.uk.

4

5

4 Like the gods and goddesses that grace some of his seven 17.5 x 29cm 'Roma' trays ($128 each), John Derian's découpage wares are omnipresent – with very good reason. His obsession with printed matter ultimately led him to establish a studio in New York, where artisans practise the art of cutting and pasting paper to create the finest such decorative accessories. Ring 001 212 677 3917, or visit johnderian.com.

5 There once was a textile designer on a mountain so high, who made a wallpaper for which you would die. Or at least yodel about.

Hand-printed in the peaks bordering England and Wales, Knowles & Christou's 'Wicker' comes in 11 colourways and is available via the company's London showroom, as well as online; £153.60 per 9.5m roll. Ring 020 7352 7000, or visit knowles-christou.com.

6 Marguerite Lemaire's initial 'Mille Fleurs' carpet design (top) for Pinton blossomed into a trefoil of floral offerings, including 'Eva' (right). All are available as wall-to-wall flooring or rugs at £137 approx per sq m. Ring 00 33 1 45 44 60 02, or visit pinton1867.com.

7 Drummonds' brushed-brass and Verde Guatemala-marble 'Taw' double vanity (from £7,182) offers a contemporary alternative to classic washstands at which to divest yourself of the day's dirt. Ring 020 7376 4499, or visit drummonds-uk.com.

8 With its synonymous 'ethnic chic' homewares in tow, Caravane lately arrived at King's Cross. Not the railway station but nearby Coal Drops Yard, the much-vaunted destination for design obsessives. Shown: Kanta-embroidered reversible 'Kandi' bedspreads – from £200 approx each. Ring 020 3819 8660, or visit caravane.fr.

9 Precisely which colour 'Plissé' electric kettle Polly puts on for tea will be partly determined by where she lives: Michele de Lucchi's design for Alessi comes in red, grey, black and white, though only the last two are available in Britain. Ring 00 39 02 9475 3451, or visit alessi.com.

10 Making waves: Atelier Biagetti has done just that with its 'Anemona' table (£49,000 approx), whose rippling leather and blue-lacquer base is a homage to the Adriatic Sea. It's the studio's first creation for Louis Vuitton's 'Objets Nomades' range – but, we hope, not its last. Ring 020 7998 6286, or visit louisvuitton.com ■

