REDEFINING NEUTRALS

WARM METAL FINISHES LIFT THIS LOOK TO A NEW LEVEL OF LUXURY, RESHAPING THE CONCEPT OF A PARED-BACK PALETTE

‘LARGE MARBLE SLABS CAN FEEL CLAUSTROPHOBIC AND COLD; USING THEM ON A FEW KEY AREAS WILL PROVE MUCH MORE INTERESTING AND INVITING’ Harriet Hughes, director, Harriet Hughes Interior Design

DESIGNER Harriet Hughes, director, Harriet Hughes Interior Design, harriethughes.co.uk.
THE PROPERTY A red-brick, five-bedroom new-build in Mobberley, Cheshire.
DIMENSIONS 4x5m.

BRIEF

This Georgian-inspired new-build was all about grand proportions and bringing in light. For the master bathroom, designer Harriet Hughes was asked to channel the classic elegance of a luxury country hotel. 'My challenge was to incorporate luxurious materials and statement fittings without it looking overdone,' recalls Harriet.

FURNITURE

The bespoke vanity has been lifted above the floor for a more modern, open feel.

Bespoke vanity unit designed by Harriet Hughes Interior Design for Bespoke Interiors, bespoke-cheshire.co.uk.

SURFACES

The same delicately veined marble slab was used for the floor tiles, countertop, basins and herringbone tiles inside the shower.

Bianco Carrara marble, from £15,000, The Thomas Group, thethomasgroup.co.uk. Walls in Skimming Stone; panelling and vanity in All White, both estate eggshell, £62 for 2.5L, Farrow & Ball, farrow-ball.com.

FITTINGS

Drummonds is Harriet's favourite supplier. 'I love the classic look and the quality. Here, the large-scale bath and brassware counteract the delicacy of the marble,' she says.

Usk bath in burnished copper, from £10,140; Leawood floorstanding bath and shower mixer, from £2,934; Leawood three-hole wall-mounted basin mixers, from £1,278 each, all Drummonds, drummonds-uk.com.

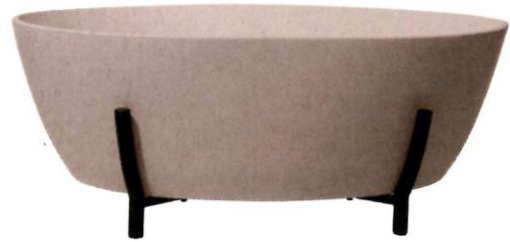

LIGHTING & ACCESSORIES

Harriet had the fluted glass wall sconces cut down to better fit the vanity area. The windows were dressed with plain blinds.

Luxxu Tycho sconces in gold-plated brass with crystal glass flutes, £1,350 each, 1st Dibs, 1stdibs.co.uk. Blinds in Uma Rice Paper linen in 7607/01, £82m, Romo, romo.com.
