STAR QUALITY

Meet the winners of the new-look

Homes & Gardens Design

Awards, our celebration of creativity in the industry.

We've recognised five interiors game changers, five inspiring projects and nine beautiful products – all offering a fascinating insight into new style directions

“EACH OF THESE
DESIGN PROJECTS
IS INNOVATIVE,
IMAGINATIVE AND IMPRESSIVE IN ITS OWN WAY. THE USE
OF MATERIALS AND FINISHES IS KEY”

SARAH SPITERI, Editorial Director

BEST RESIDENTIAL PROJECT

WINNER: STRATFORD STUDIOS, TURNER POCOCK

'This was the most soulful entry, the most sophisticated,' judge Beata Heuman believed. 'Everything here goes together so well – it's so coherent,' added Lina Kanafani. 'I like where they've put the fireplace,' Kit Kemp said. 'There's not much space, but they've made something very special from it.'

BEST GARDEN

WINNER: OLD RECTORY, ANOUSHKA FEILER AT BESTIQUE

'It's such a wow design,' said Siobahn Farley. 'It has a really good story about dividing outdoor space,' said Barbara Chandler. 'This approach could work in town or country,' added Kit Kemp.

HIGHLY COMMENDED: Garden at Field Farm, Kim and Rob Hurst

'There's something poetic about the use of flowers,' said Sebastian Cox.

BEST KITCHEN

WINNER: K&H DESIGN

'It's so beautiful and it feels so different,' said judge Kit Kemp. 'The use of materials is very original.'

HIGHLY COMMENDED: The Haberdasher's Kitchen, deVOL

'This is the sort of kitchen everyone dreams of owning,' said executive editor Kate French.

BEST BATHROOM

WINNER: DRUMMONDS WITH STEVEN GAMBREL

'What I love about this design is the simplicity of its materials,' said interiors editor Emma Thomas. 'It will last forever,' Kit Kemp said.

BEST COMMERCIAL PROJECT

WINNER: LIME WOOD HOTEL PAVILION SUITE, SUSIE ATKINSON

'This feels so relaxing,' said judge Siobahn Farley. 'It's lovely and homely,' agreed Lina Kanafani.

HIGHLY COMMENDED: Harrods
Dining Hall, David Collins Studio

'It's such a fun space to be in,' said judge Barbara Chandler. →
