FUTURE

TWO-TONE SPLENDOR Above: Taking inspiration from historic chinoiserie murals, this stunning Décor Chinois wallpaper, priced on application, would transform a bathroom into an exotic escape. Created by historic French wallpaper manufacturer Zuber, it is beautifully contrasted by panelling painted in plaster pink — for a similar shade, try Sulking Room Pink from Farrow & Ball. Drummonds' double Lowther vanity with Verde Guatemala marble top, from £7,140, and an Art Deco-inspired velvet seat complete the luxurious look.

RESTFUL RETREAT Right: Imbued with the timeless beauty of the natural world, myriad greens make a soothing bedroom scheme when tempered with accents of soft pink. Set the tone with walls in Ulla Absolute matt emulsion, £48.50 for 2.5ltrs at Little Greene, and create a beautiful focal point by making a botanical wall hanging using Lewis & Wood's Coromandel linen in Malachite, £126.20 per m. Furnish with luxurious statement pieces including a king-size Chrome bed in Good Green Clever deep velvet, £1,235 at Loaf, and Barker side table, £1,850 at Sebastian Cox. Finally, soften the scheme with sumptuous Athena bedlinen, from £80 for a standard pillowcase at Yves Delorme, and layer with textural woven fabrics. Try cushions in Trees in Sea Forest linen, £97.90 per m at Parker & Jules, and for a similar blush pink bedspread try the V&A Peony Blossom knitted throw in Blush, £75 from Seymour's House.
