NOVEMBER 2023

1. 'The gold colour is an invitation to dream and to travel. I don't use it a lot, but sometimes it can fill a space with light. I loved that the kitchen, a room that is usually not the "main character" of the flat, became the centre of attention.' JAIME BERIESTAIN, founder, Jaime Beriestain Studio

2. 'We achieved the golden ochre walls with a plaster limewash paint from a French company called Ressource. It makes a wonderful complement to the Cipollino Fantastico stone, vintage Swedish sconces and brass fittings.' MONICA FRIED, founder, Monica Fried Design

3. 'The natural beauty of Japan will infuse your room with a sense of peace and history. With its flecked gold backdrop, this wallpaper mural lends opulent texture and grandeur to the bedroom, making it more than just a place to sleep.' DANIEL FIELD, managing director, Surface View

4. 'We had a lot of fun designing this space for Drummonds. We're always encouraging clients to go bolder, and gold makes a room feel luxurious. A downstairs loo is a great place for gold as it can tie in well with brass or nickel sanitary ware.' LUCY BARLOW, co-director, Barlow & Barlow

MAIN BATHROOM

A vanity made using reclaimed boards also has hidden storage behind the mirrors. Polished plaster is on the walls.

Vanity designed by Maddux Creative; made by Andrew Penny. Tay bath, Drummonds. Henry taps, Waterworks
