The Bibury Shower Set

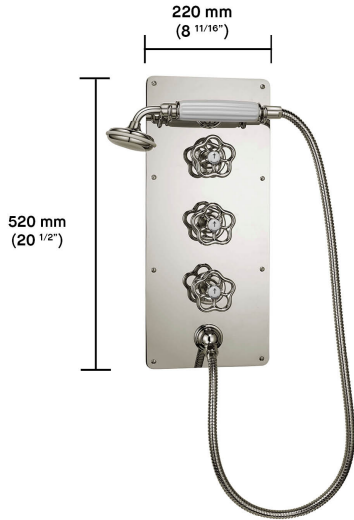

Years in the making, the 'Marc Newson for Drummonds Collection' is an exciting new design collaboration between luxury bathroom manufacturer, Drummonds and multi award-winning industrial designer, Marc Newson. Born out of Marc's love and admiration for Drummonds' classic English style, as well as their artisanal approach to the manufacturing process, the collection showcases an inspirational and refined array of products, including a spectacular freestanding bath, shower controls and a range of taps and mixers. Bold and beautifully engineered, the new pieces sit in perfect harmony with Drummonds' existing collections — offering all the craftsmanship and design heritage that Drummonds are renowned for — yet they are also infused with Marc's signature design style. A true synergy of two dynamic brands, the collection is designed with today's interiors in mind, bringing a contemporary look to luxury bathrooms. On the collaboration, Marc says: 'As a client of Drummonds for a number of years, the collection was inspired by my respect for the company and its exceptional eye for detail and mastery of traditional processes. Taking design cues from retro bath fittings and combining them with some modern high-end manufacturing, the collection truly expresses my and Drummonds' values — timelessness, quality and functionality.'
